Mission Statement

Sisters of Benet Hill Monastery

Ora et Labora

The Continuing Care Fund support retired members now and into the future. These sisters, in different stages of aging, require different levels of care which range from 24-hour skilled nursing needs to assisted living services to nearly independent living.

The Mission Outreach Fund funds all current ministries, including the Benedictine Spiritual Formation Program, Global Online, and Contemplative Vision.

The Capital Fund is for the maintenance and upkeep of Monastery properties in Colorado Springs, Denver, and Grand Junction. Capital funds also support equipment, facilities, technology, and landscaping.

The Current Operating Fund comprises the operating budget for the Monastery with revenue coming primarily from social security payments, salaries earned, and philanthropy. Major expenses include lay staff salaries and property maintenance.

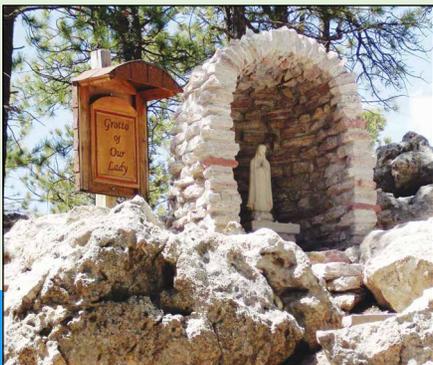

We, the Sisters of Benet Hill Monastery of Colorado Springs, CO are a contemporary Benedictine Monastic presence.

We provide the sacred space of hospitality and the use of our human and material resources in education, spirituality, and other viable ministries.

We do this with all God's people and with a special emphasis for women.

You are invited

Throughout their years of discernment, the sisters have prayerfully revisited their core values of common prayer, community life and life-giving ministry through hospitality. These values continue to shape their monastic tradition of contemplation and prayer for the world as together they seek God in community.

"I think it is our responsibility to preserve the tradition and history of our monastic communities as well as to share the central element of contemplative vision for future generations. They are the seeds that can be planted and harvested to help humanity develop and grow, indeed, to survive.

Having witnessed the spirit of hospitality and caring of the Benet Hill community for the past several years I felt that including a planned gift in my will would be a valuable way to assure that their vision can live on."

What you should know

You can make a legacy gift to the Sisters of Benet Hill Monastery. Whether you think of yourself as rich or poor, or somewhere in between, your gift can make a difference. Even a small amount can have a big impact over time.

You can leave money to your family and to Benet Hill. Some people think they must choose between leaving a gift to their family or their favorite charities. You can do both, and some charitable gifts may actually save your family money by decreasing inheritance taxes.

It's easy. A simple directive in your will can bring welcome support to the sisters. Our legal title is: Benet Hill Monastery of Colorado Springs, Inc.

You can start today

*Make sure you have an up-to-date will (or living trust) that reflects your charitable intentions. Without these documents, you surrender control of your property and assets to the courts.

*Contact your financial adviser (a financial planner, attorney, or accountant) and ask for help establishing a charitable gift.

*Think beyond cash. Benet Hill accepts gifts of stock/securities, real estate, insurance policies and personal property.

*Make Benet Hill a beneficiary of your life insurance, pension plan, or IRA.
